1 The pronouncement of the word of the Lord to Israel through Malachi: 2 "I have loved you," says the Lord. But you say, "How have You loved us?" "Was Esau not Jacob's brother?" declares the Lord. "Yet I have hated Esau; I have made his mountain a desolation and given his inheritance to the jackals of the wilderness. I thought, 'I will not visit Jacob; 3 but I have hated Esau, and I have made his mountain a desolation and given his inheritance to the jackals of the wilderness. I thought, 'I will not visit Jacob; 4 but you say, 'How have we defiled You?' In that you say, 'The table of the Lord is to be despised.' 8 And when you present a blind animal for sacrifice, is it not evil? Or when you present a lame or sick animal, is it not evil? So offer it to your governor! Would he be pleased with you, or would he receive you kindly?" says the Lord of armies. "But now, do not be afraid for God's favor, so that you will be able to prosper with such righteousness. The Lord of armies says, 'The people of the land will be brought down, and I will bring down every territory of the land. I will leave you people with wrathful hearts, and you will be indignant forever. My altar for you will see this, and you will say, 'The Lord be exalted beyond the border of Israel!'" 6 "A son honors his father, and a servant his master. Then if I am a father, where is My honor? And if I am a master, where is My respect?" says the Lord of armies to you, the priests who despise My name! But you say, 'How have we despised Your name?' 7 You are offering defiled food upon My altar. But you say, 'How have we defiled You?'
