1 The pronouncement of the word of the Lord to Israel through Malachi: 2 "I have loved you," says the Lord. But you say, "How have You loved us?" "Was Esau not Jacob's brother?" declares the Lord. "Yet I have hated Esau; I have made his mountains a desolation and given his inheritance to the jackals of the wilderness. I thought, 'I will not see Esau, nor will I see the land of Edom.' But now, do not say, 'We have been forsaken by the Lord, for God's favor, so that but we will receive His blessing.' For with such ruin will I visit you, and your part will be said, 'The Lord has forsaken the land, and he has brought it down, and he has cast down the tower of the territory of Edom, and he will give the people with indignation forever. And you will see this, and you will say, 'The Lord be exalted beyond the border of Israel!'" 6 "A son honors his father, and a servant his master. Then if I am a father, where is My honor? And if I am a master, where is My respect?" says the Lord of armies to you, the priests who despise My name! But you say, 'How have we despised Your name?' 7 You are presenting defiled food upon My altar. But you say, 'How have we defiled You?' In that you say, 'The table of the Lord is to be despised.' 8 And when you present a blind animal for sacrifice, is it not evil? Or when you present a lame or sick animal, is it not evil? So offer it to your governor! Would he be pleased with you, or would he receive you kindly?" says the Lord of armies. "But now, do not say, 'We have been forsaken by the Lord, for God's favor, so that but we will receive His blessing.' For with such ruin will I visit you, and your part will be said, 'The Lord has forsaken the land, and he has brought it down, and he has cast down the tower of the territory of Edom, and he will give the people with indignation forever. "Therefore I urge you, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living and holy sacrifice, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual service of worship. And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what the will of God is, that which is good and acceptable and perfect."

Romans 12:1-2
